

Print out and glue stairway onto cereal or cookie box board. When cut out, this becomes a tracer. Use it to draw the patterns that your child wants. (Trace the bottom for standing still, flip it for step-ping up...)The children can print letter-names (or paste in critters) on the steps after they decide which key they want to start on.

